COACHES

The 2019 Mustang Summer Volleyball camps are directed by Terry Culhane, head volleyball coach for the Mustangs. He is assisted by SMSU assistant coaches Tyler Boddy and Paul Soupir along with the Mustang Volleyball team.

Other coaches include:

- Dan Westby, head coach for the 2007, 2009, 2011, 2012 & 2013 State Champion and 2014 & 2018 State Runner-Up Marshall Tigers
- Pam Schroeder, Marshall graduate and former NCAA All-America Setter. Assistant Coach at University of Wisconsin-Stout
- Dave Ahmann, former Marshall Tiger head coach from 1974-1984 and 1987-1990. Led the Tiger volleyball team to their first state tournament in 1977.

CAMP DETAILS

Distinctive Features: Campers are grouped according to skill and ability levels. Along with the training, there will be break activities to give campers opportunities to meet new friends and enjoy their experience here at SMSU. Every pre-registered camper will receive a camp t-shirt and volleyball to keep.

Resident Campers: All rooms are air-conditioned! Dorms are suite style, which includes two rooms with an adjoining bathroom. Each suite can house four campers, with two in each room. Rooms do not have refrigerators.

What to Bring: Plenty of playing clothes, toiletries, socks, volleyball shoes, and kneepads. It is also recommended that campers who are staying in the SMSU Residence Halls bring their own linens, towels, pillows, and blankets.

Camp Store: Bring extra money for purchases of SMSU Mustang souvenirs and volleyball attire.

Injury Prevention: SMSU camp staff and training room facilities are available for all campers.

COACH REVIEWS

“The SMSU Team Camp has been a summer staple in our program for the past several years. Our players and coaches absolutely love the experience. The instruction, the facilities, and the competition are all top notch. Coach Culhane, his staff and the Mustang players have hit the bullseye with this camp. If you want to see marked improvement in your team, SMSU is the place you want to be in late July.”

— Dan Westby, Head Volleyball Coach at Marshall High School (2004, 2007, 2009, 2011, 2012 & 2013 State Champions, 2014 & 2018 State Runner-Up)

“The entire coaching staff is trained to pay attention to details, and they do a fabulous job improving all player’s fundamentals. I am constantly impressed with how the training sessions are personalized to meet our team’s goals and how they make everyone on the team feel valued.”

— Kari Jung, Head Varsity Coach at Warner (SD) High School (2013 & 2014 State Champions, 2015 & 2017 State Runner-Up)

Sarina Smith, SMSU Middle Blocker,
2017 & 2018 All-NSIC 2nd Team

MUSTANG SUMMER CAMPS

SKILLS * POSITION CAMPS

These camps are designed to offer a balance of training between the general skills of the game, and training on the skills for each specific position. In addition to skill and position training, both camps will include contests and team competition.

Attacker training will focus on all aspects of attacking including approach, armswing, shot selection, off-speed and position specific attacks. There will also be work on blocking as well.

Setter training will focus on all aspects of setting from basic footwork, form and technique to advanced concepts including attacking, deception, and emergency skills.

Libero training strives to create master ball-handlers.

We will cover every first contact skill from basic passing and setting form to emergency defensive skills like overhand digging, sprawls and extensions.
